Hosey	13
Nancy	11
Gabe	8
Susan	6
George	3

Info from mittie10@aol.com, a contact of Ana Montero (amontero@bsc.net) March 2000. Middle names for Hosea's three sons also from her. Email from her to Ana concerning Ana's Gray family research:

"Your Joseph Gray b. 1802 NC intrigues me. I don't know who my Joseph married. He was born 1802-1805 and lived in Onslow Co. NC until about 1839. He was in Pulaski Co. Ga. in 1850 and died in 1853 in Early Co. Ga.

His son, Hosea Gray married Aggy Ann Parramore and had three sons: John Clark Gray, William Martin Gray and James Alexander Gray. This James does not look like the same as yours. These Grays did live in the counties of Dale, Geneva, Coffee, Houston Al at one time or another and also Henry, Conecuh and Covington later on. This son James A Gray married at least twice..." - - remainder of email lost

Nathan and Nancy Gray had at least one other son and one, possibly two other daughters. The son probably died young. The two daughters born between 1788-1803 are unknown. Nathan Gray died bef. May 1825. Onslow Court ordered that John Pollock, White Ennett, Henry Shepard and John Duval be appointed to lay off Nancy Gray's years support. Nd ordered that Gabriel Gray be appointed administrator to Nathan Gray dec'd. and give bond of five hundred dollars and gives for security Hosea Williams and Miles W. Spight. (Hosea Williams possibly brother of Nancy Gray)

Ann (Jobe) Brown 2003-11-19 18:35:57

My records show Martha Lou Jones to be the d/o Robert Jones and Mary Ann Henderson and gd/o James Denby Jones and Ann J. Sims. A group of us has been researching for a long time trying to locate a descendant of Robert Jones and would very much like to contact someone who descends from this family. Could you write me and let me know how you're related to Martha (Jones) who married John Clark Gray August 19, 1880 in Henry Co., Alabama.

Martha appears on the 1860 Clay Co., GA census as a child, age 1, with her parents, on the 1880 Henry Co., Alabama Census she is listed as Lou Jones, age 21 with her parents and then in 1910 she is married with her husband on the 1910 Washington Co., Florida census.

We're also trying to find the Robert Jones family on the 1870 census.

Thanks for any assistance.

Children of ROBERT GRAY and JULIA GRIFFITH are:

- i. JULIA RUTH<sup>5</sup> GRAY<sup>43</sup>, b. Abt. 1907<sup>44</sup>.

- iii. CARL R GRAY, b. 11 Aug 1914<sup>45</sup>; d. 09 Mar 1982.

Notes for CARL R GRAY:
Carl Gray was a local politician in Panama City, Florida, where we lived during the late 1950s.

My grandmother Mary Etta Gray Owens always said that Carl's grandfather and her father were brothers. This does not now seem very likely or even possible, since we have accounted for all the brothers of her father, Andrew Jackson Gray, that we know of. I thought once that maybe she was a generation off, and maybe it was Carl's greatgrandfather and her grandfather who were brothers. This would make Hosea Clark Gray the brother of Joseph Gray of Geneva. But Hosea's father appears to be the Joseph C Gray who was age 44 on the 1850 Pulaski Co., Ga, census and who is about the same age as our Joseph.

It seems likely now that she had Carl's family confused with that of Christine Gray of Panama City, whose grandfather was Joseph Gray, Jr, brother to Etta's father, Andrew Jackson Gray.

I had a phone conversation with Carl Gray some time around 1979-80. He seemed confused, and rambled from one subject to another. His greatgrandfather Hosea Clark Gray and his wife Anna Paramore (around Blakely, Ga.) were as far back as he knew, but he said his grandfather was John and his remembered a Martin. He had an Aunt Martha, and a first cousin named Corine Gray Lindley.

Finding Corine as daughter of Joseph S Gray of Millville on the 1910 and 1920 censuses, I had assumed that Joseph S must be brother to Carl's father. Joseph S is buried in the same cemetery lot as John C Gray, so I'm assuming that he was John's son. Carl's father is listed as Hosie on the 1920 census and R H on the 1935 Florida state census. The tombstone gives "Robert Hosea".

Note 27 Feb 2005: I think that Robert Hosea, Joseph Sylvester and William Benjamin were all sons of John Clark Gray, buried at Millville.

Notes from Along the Bay by Marlene Womack, 1994 (a pictorial history of Bay County, Florida):

p. 113 Picture of Randall H Gray, age 6, and brother Carl R Gray, age 8, in 1922. Sons of R H Gray who operated a large general store in Millville at NE corner of Center Ave and Third St. -- canned goods, dry goods, fertilizer, clothing, produce, etc. Gray's sons, including John H Gray, worked with him in the store.

p. 142 Picture of W B Gray Lumber Company. In 1898, W B Gray journeyed to Millville with his father, JC Gray, from the Blackwater River area. The Gray family travelled with a 6-wagon caravan, moving their carts and logging equipment along with them.

The elder Gray came to Millville to clear land for a sawmill, which in a few years became the famous German American Lumber Company. W B Gray went on to operate this lumber company.

Note: Blackwater River is in Santa Rosa County. The village of Bagdad, where John C Gray lived, is on the banks of the Blackwater River, near Milton. The sawmill there was center of the local economy. How many J C Grays were there in the area in 1898?

***Note: There is a John C Gray buried in the Millville Cemetery. Our John C Gray is buried in Bagdad Cemetery near Milton, Florida. Is William B Gray a brother to Joseph Sylvester who, I am assuming, is a son of John C of Millville? That would make William B uncle to Carl Gray.

From: <http://www.newsherald.com/articles/2000/12/24/lo122400g.htm> (article by Marlene Womack about G.M.B. Harries' account of the 1897 quarantine against yellow fever in the Mobile, Ala., and Gulfport, Miss., area.) (Note 24 Mar 2005: This article is no longer online.)
<excerpt> . . .

In 1905, G.M.B. Harries moved to Millville for employment with the German American Lumber Co. On May 26, 1906, he married Adele Bovis. She was the daughter of Henry Bovis, the founder of the St. Andrews Lumber Co., which became the German American Lumber Co. Harries served as Bay County's first tax assessor from 1913-1924. From 1925-1935 he was active in the real estate and abstract business. Harries died unexpectedly at the age of 62, March 25, 1935, on the beach while seeking relief from a severe asthma attack. He was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

<excerpt>
While developers eyed St. Andrew in the 1880s, Samuel J. Erwin, Green B. Thompson, and Clark B. Slade took up homesteads on the land that would become Panama City. C. J. Demorest and G. W. Jenks surveyed some of this property and platted it as the Town of Harrison on September 20, 1883. This survey showed Harrison Avenue where it runs today. The Harrison post office opened on the waterfront on January 14, 1889. The financial panic of 1892 bought doom to this project and any interest in future land sales. Harrison remained a small trading post where a total of four families resided year round. The original owners retained rights to most of the land until the early 1900s.

The area's reawakening began in Millville when Henry Bovis, a French Canadian with lumber interests in Bagdad, Florida, surveyed the bay and seemingly inexhaustible surrounding forests. Bovis constructed a mill at the head of Watson Bayou and called it the St. Andrews Lumber Co. Those seeking work flocked to the mill town. The Millville post office opened on September 20, 1899.

In 1904, service at the Harrison post office was discontinued and moved to Millville. . .

. . . In 1910, Henry Bovis sold the St. Andrews Lumber Co. to a foreign syndicate and it became known as the German-American Lumber Co. Hundreds moved to Millville to work at this huge mill. By 1910, Millville ranked as the bay's largest community, one that went on to produce many of this area's most influential sons and daughters. <end excerpt>
