Stallings Family Records, Supplement by James Henry Stallings, published Oct 1977 by The Stallings Company, 118 Winnetka Road, San Antonio, Texas 78229 (copy in Orlando Public Library), pg 70:

Lists him as Clinton Capus Seale, b. Evergreen, Conecuh Co., Al 24 Jun 1861; d 23 Feb 1946; married to Mattie Louisa Seale, dau of his uncle Cornelius Hampton Seale. (His brother Anderson Hughes was married to Mattie's sister Cornelia Victoria, although Stallings has Anderson Hughes' first name as Cleveland.) This book lists long line of Clinton C's descendants up to the 1970s.

Age is not consistent. Listed as 7 on 25 June 1870 but age 19 on 1880 census (taken in June/July), giving birth year 1859/60. Brother William's age was 1 year short of what it should have been in 1870, because he was 4 months old in 1860, but only 9 in 1870. Clinton C Seale's age should have been 50 on the 1910 census if he had actually been born in Oct 1859 as stated on 1900 census, but he was listed as only 49, indicating a birth year of 1860.

Notes for REV. JAMES ANDERSON SEALE:

Ida Carrie Seale, pg 21, said that information on this family was furnished by his daughter, Mrs. J.R. (Frances Seale) Sanders, Panama City, Florida, 1954.

James Anderson was born "in the home that had been given to his parents when they married, by his (grand)father Anderson Seale, and it was not very far from grandfather Conner's." He was a circuit riding

Descendants of Anderson Seale Generation 3

Methodist preacher in Alabama and Northwest Florida. He performed the marriage ceremonies for several of his children.

He died at his home on Harrison Avenue in Panama City, Florida (pg 21b). However, on pg 179, it says that after he retired in 1932, they moved into the first home they had ever owned, in Beacon Beach, Florida (which is in Bay County), and that after his death, she sold it and bought a house on the bay in Panama City. So maybe it wasn't Panama City where he died.

Reported buried at Greenwood Cemetery, but no Seales listed in online listing at <http://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/fl/bay/cemetery/greenwoodNS.txt>.
