Email to Wilda Murphy from Freda Roberson Noble on 12 Jan 2003:

Amos Jones Birth: ca 1825, Alabama Death: 23 Feb 1867

Info came from SG Vickery. Amos's estate was appraised by John Duren Vickery, William Rogers and Mary's brother-in-law Franklin Vickery. Estate Book 7, p 568, Butler County, Al. Gives date of death.

Census 1850: 177. Amos Jones, 25, m. farmer; Mary 19, Nancy 2. In the 1850 census, Amos had married Mary and had one child. He was enumerated near Franklin Vickrey, who had recently married Mary's sister, Elizabeth Seale. Franklin purchased land from James Moore in 1855 (typo? see below) in S21 T9 R12, which was down the Old Federal Road from Shackleville about half way to the Conecuh Co. line. Franklin and Elizabeth appear to have been living on that land when the 1850 census was taken. Amos and Mary were living almost next to them. In 1855 when the Graduation Act was passed, Franklin moved back up to the Shackleville area and bought all the land he could near his mother for 12.5 cents/acre. Amos did the same, buying land very near Franklin's. Franklin appears to have moved back to his earlier property by 1860, but Amos and Mary stayed in the Shackleville area and appear to have had his parents move in with them.

Amos appears to have been born between 1825 and 1828 in AL. It appears that he married Mary Seales about 1848. Probate was started on his estate in February, 1867. Normally, that would suggest that he died shortly before that, but in view of the Civil War just preceding it, probate might have been delayed and he might have died during the War. In fact, in the 1866 census, Mary states that their family had a soldier who died during the War from sickness. He also may have come home from the War sick and died later.

Notes for AMOS JONES:

Researcher Bobby Joe Seales (Shelby County webmaster) says that Amos was dead by 1867.

I have no info on Caladonia Jones. I don't know who any of her people are. Columbus Blankinship is brother to my great-grandmother, Martha Milbra Blankinship. She married John Carr Martin. . .

Anyway, the only thing I have been able to find, so far, is:

Mary Seale Jones daughter Mary Jones married Albert Newton Raspberry, Dec. 29, 1878.

Their children are:

John T. Raspberry, b. 02/29/1880, d. 07/17/1918 and is buried at Fairview Cemetery. He married Lela Warren 11/17/1899, and their children were Lela A. Raspberry, b. 01/30/1904. Bernice Raspberry, b. 01/23/1908, and Reba Raspberry.

Lonnie W. Raspberry, b. 11/12/1884, d. 10/31/1967, buried at Fairview Cemetery. Mar. Bertha W. Calcote.

Myrtie Raspberry, b. abt. 1891

Grace Raspberry, b. 06/04/1896.

Essie Mae Raspberry, b. 05/26/1902
